

TRAINING AND COACHINGS FOR LAWYERS: INDISPENSABLE COMPETENCES

TRAINING AND COACHINGS

How we work

Lawyers, auditors, tax advisors and patent attorneys are often highly qualified - they have only had little contact with the topics of law firm management. To avoid reinventing the wheel, it is sometimes helpful to get an overview.

Since 2009, our training academy AdvoCoach GmbH has been successful in the conception and implementation of internal training measures, be it the entire training or individual modules. In doing so, we train partners, senior associates in boot camps, in management trainings exclusively based on specific requirements of the law firms.

We also offer coachings for individuals in the framework of development programs for lawyers within a specific law firm. This is particularly helpful during role changes, like from Associate to Partner, or when being elected as Partner to become a Practise Group Leader, or when becoming Managing Partner.
